execution. Rep. Luis Gutiérrez of Illinois, at left in an Oct. 15, 2016, television interview, says he's concerned that the Supreme Court is in the hands of people who will favor political agendas over the Constitution and the rule of law. AUSTIN, Texas — When Rep. Luis Gutierrez, a Chicago Democrat, was sworn in as an

U.S. representative in 2001, the president of the United States was a Republican and the
party's agenda was to cut taxes. Things have changed
dramatically since that first swearing-in ceremony —
including in Washington. Now,
the party that holds
the White House,
and also has a
supermajority in the Senate, is the Republican Party,

and the agenda is a different one.

Gutierrez, 66, a member of the Congressional
Hispanic Caucus
since 1997, has served in the House
since 1993.

Gutiérrez was the speaker of the House in 2009-10.
